Everyone's Talking About A Grand Wedding.com

SEATTLE, WA – The word is spreading about A Grand Wedding (www.agrandwedding.com), the only wedding resource where every vendor on their web site has a service or product priced at or under a thousand dollars.

SEATTLE BRIDE magazine sung their praises along with glossy, Eastside magazine 425. The Seattle Times even called out A Grand Wedding's giveaway bags!

With the average wedding costing in the ballpark of $29,000, more and more couples want a beautiful wedding... with enough money left over for a beautiful life. "That's what A Grand Wedding is all about," says Georgie Hockett, the co-founder & Original Bride of AGrandWedding.com.

A Grand Wedding is the only site that features wedding professionals who have a package or service priced at a thousand dollars—or less. "Our Buy, Borrow or Share section is a revolutionary way for brides to find wedding elements," Georgie explains. "Brides can sell or rent out their wedding dress; so a former bride can make money on the dress that's just sitting in her closet and it gives a new bride the chance to have a dress she may not be able to afford if it were new."

The Share section is for two brides who want the same thing—say, a certain style of candelabra for their centerpieces—to split the cost on the items. "Then, when the two brides are done with the centerpieces, they can sell them in the Buy section," says Georgie.

A Grand Wedding also boasts a community section where brides can dish about vendors, share tips and provide support and inspiration. "You'll never see the words 'budget' or 'bargain' on A Grand Wedding," says Georgie. "This is a site for savvy, brand-conscious brides who want a beautiful, meaningful wedding with a realistic price tag."
