Bringing the Love Back into the Wedding Industry: A Grand Wedding.com

SEATTLE, WA—In this economy, everyone is trying to save money. And if you happen to be planning a wedding right now, you're extremely conscious of high price tags, huge deposits and confusing contracts. So, how does a FREE wedding sound?

A Grand Wedding (www.agrandwedding.com)—the only site featuring wedding vendors who have services for a thousand dollars or less—is seeking nominations for their non-profit, “good karma” venture, AngelBride®. “It’s essentially Extreme Makeover: Home Edition for brides,” says co-founder & Original Bride, Georgie Hockett.

Ideal nominees may have an unusual story of how they met, volunteer in their community, are in the middle of a personal struggle or are just good people who need help having the wedding of their dreams.

The editors at A Grand Wedding will narrow down nominated couples to the top three. Then, the Grand community will vote for their favorite couple. “The winning couple can request what wedding service they’d like, but we will do everything we can to get their every wedding wish granted,” says Hockett.

Nominations are being received at www.agrandwedding.com/angelbride. In this day and age, FREE stuff for good people is the perfect price tag.

About A Grand Wedding

A Grand Wedding (www.agrandwedding.com) is the only web resource where every vendor on the site has a wedding service under a thousand dollars. A Grand Wedding also introduces BUY, BORROW or SHARE—a revolutionary ‘green’ way for brides to purchase, rent or split the bill on wedding items. The A Grand Wedding concept was created by local couple, Dave and Georgie Hockett. “We wanted a beautiful wedding with enough money left over for a beautiful life,” says Georgie. “We wanted a marriage, not just a wedding.”
