

Wedding Vendors Under a Grand.™

FOR RELEASE

April 27, 2009

CONTACT: Georgie Hockett,
co-founder & Original Bride,
206. 852. 2911, georgie@agrandwedding.com
pr@agrandwedding.com

Generate Income Out of Your Closet:
Start a "wedding rental business" on Buy, Borrow or Share™
by A Grand Wedding.com

SEATTLE, WA—In this economy, everyone is trying to save money and make money. And if you have "leftover" wedding items sitting in your closet, you could easily convert them into hundreds of dollars.

A Grand Wedding (www.agrandwedding.com) boasts a revolutionary Buy, Borrow or Share™ section, where brides can turn extra, unused or unwanted wedding items into some well-needed cash. "Buy, Borrow or Share™ is not only environmentally-friendly, it's wallet-friendly too," says co-founder & Original Bride, Georgie Hockett.

Once a seller has signed up for an A Grand Wedding account, they're free to post and sell—or post and rent—wedding items such as no-longer-needed candle holders, unused wedding favors and more. "Even bridesmaids can make extra cash," says Hockett. "If they all got together and put a 'combined posting' on Buy, Borrow or Share™, they could sell their dresses as a 'lot', essentially passing the dresses on to the next round of bridesmaids."

Mothers-of-brides are also hocking their wedding day duds, along with left over Thank You notes, faux florals, aisle runners and more. "Let's say someone has a lot of wedding leftovers but isn't quite ready to permanently part with them. But thanks to the economy, they're also looking to make extra cash," explains Hockett. "That person could rent out their wares, make anywhere from [as an example] $50 to $200, have the item returned to them and then rent it out again. It's almost like starting your own little wedding rental business right there," says Hockett, "It's similar to people who make money selling items on eBay. And because posting items on Buy, Borrow or Share™ is always free; there's no overhead. Just the cost of the items you originally purchased."

###

About A Grand Wedding

A Grand Wedding (www.agrandwedding.com) is the only web resource where every vendor on the site has a wedding service under a thousand dollars. A Grand Wedding also introduces Buy, Borrow or Share™—a revolutionary 'green' way for brides to purchase, rent or split the bill on wedding items. The A Grand Wedding concept was created by local couple, Dave and Georgie Hockett. "We wanted a beautiful wedding with enough money left over for a beautiful life," says Georgie.