Finding a Loophole When Tying the Knot: *A Grand Wedding

SEATTLE, WA – Now Seattle couples have a way to stretch their wedding dollars: by finding wedding professionals on A Grand Wedding (agrandwedding.com)—where every vendor who advertises on the site has a service or product priced at or under a thousand dollars.

The concept, inspired from their own wedding planning, was created by Seattle couple Dave and Georgie Hockett. “Even as two working professionals with two professional incomes, we had a hard time finding vendors who could work within our budget,” says Georgie.

The Bridal Association of America has reported that today’s weddings cost approximately $29,000. In response, “Brides are having smaller weddings, weddings on Fridays. They are their own iPod DJ; they have friends take the pictures with digital cameras,” says Georgie, who has been a wedding photographer for the past eight years before starting A Grand Wedding.

“A bride who thinks she may not be able to afford an award-winning photographer or high-end caterer can find one on A Grand Wedding because we’ve found them for her. And in return, wedding professionals who advertise with us are getting more work because they’re offering a petite package—fewer hours at an event, taking out some of the frills—exclusively through A Grand Wedding.com.”

About A Grand Wedding (agrandwedding.com)

A Grand Wedding (www.agrandwedding.com) is the only web resource where every vendor on the site has a wedding service under a thousand dollars. A Grand Wedding also introduces BUY, BORROW or SHARE—a revolutionary way for brides to purchase, rent or split the bill on wedding items—and AngelBride®, where wedding wishes are granted by donated, professional wedding services. The Grand Wedding concept was created by local couple, Dave and Georgie Hockett. “We wanted a beautiful wedding with enough money left over for a beautiful life,” says Georgie. “We wanted a marriage, not just a wedding.”
